Riles To Meet Butts Pontiac Public In Seaside Opens New Location

Wilson Riles, the candidate opposing Max Rafferty for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be in Monterey Thursday, October 1.

He will meet in the morning with community leaders in Seaside at Carey's Child Center, 1786 Noche Buena. At 12:00 noon he will address students and the public at the new Monterey Peninsula College outdoor amphitheater. The amphitheater is located on the west side of the campus in the area of the gym. The public is encouraged to attend.

Riles is the 52 year old black, deputy superintendent of public instruction who has won bi-partisan acclaim for operating one of the best run divisions in the State Department of Education. His handling of California's compensatory education program drew nation-wide acclaim.

The non-partisan contest that is fast becoming of major interest to California voters is marked by such statements as that of Dr. S. I. Hayaoka, one of Riles' strongest supporters, who said that Wilson Riles will "fill the leadership gap that has existed in the California School System for the past eight years."

Chamber of Commerce News

New members to the Chamber include: Butts Pontiac of 4 Heitzinger Place, Samuel Welch Real Estate, 736 Broadway and the Round Table Pizza, 1760 Fremont.

The city of Seaside and the chamber were partially successful two weeks ago to get a promise from the Division of Highways to install a sign at the north end of the city, which will read Fremont Boulevard. The chamber feels that this directional sign will steer many tourists onto Fremont, which means additional business for every business man in Seaside.

Candidate Discusses Liberals

C. T. Weber, Peace and Freedom Party candidate for State Controller, addressed a group of Movement for a Democratic Military, Pacific Counseling Service and Local Peace and Freedom people Sunday, September 27.

After a film on the 1968 Chicago Democratic Party convention, "The Seasons Change," Weber explained that liberals pass "survival laws" to make people feel that the government is responsive to them. This legitimacy is then used to suppress dissent. He further pointed out that electoral politics has become a game where one has to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to win.

Weber feels that when Peace and Freedom begins to develop political muscle, repression will fall upon it as it did to the people in Chicago. "Radicals should join together to push for one common goal --- justice. As the new society starts to develop, people will see that millions of other people want a change. They will begin to realize that the problem is not a hand full of radicals, but rather a system that allows poverty, racism, war, and repression," Weber stated.

Weber is on tour of Northern California in an attempt to let people know exactly what Peace and Freedom is all about.

Tomorrow Begins White Cane Days

The Seaside Lions Club is organizing for its annual White Cane Drive.

On Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3, Lions members and their wives will be stationed at business locations in the area to sell the traditional little white canes. All proceeds will go toward the many sight conservation projects supported by the Lions.

Canisters in stores throughout Seaside are available for your donations in the event you are not personally contacted. All money raised in the White Cane Drive is used in your community to help the visually handicapped.

Last year many eye examinations and eye glasses were provided through White Cane contributions for local children suffering sight impairment.

Marina May Children May Get Free School Lunch

In a recent informational meeting sponsored by the Marina Chamber of Commerce, the residents of that community were presented with the prospect of a city without a municipal tax.

Whether the community could actually set up and operate a city government without an increase in the residents' present tax bills depends on whether Marina can annex part of Fort Ord as Seaside did last year.

Charles Dermates, chairman of the chamber's incorporation study thinks it could be done.

Saul Weingarten, Seaside city attorney, agrees with Dermates.

Dermates proposed that the Salinas River on the north, the ocean on the west, Blanco Road on the east and First Street in Fort Ord on the south be the boundaries of the prospective city of Marina.

He estimated that population in the area would be 26,322.

Weingarten said that the proposed area of Fort Ord would be worth $169,000 to Marina in the form of state tax revenue.

The Seaside attorney also estimated that with a population of 20,000 that included part of Fort Ord, Marina could expect an annual income of $560,000 including some $400,000 in state subventions, with the rest consisting of various license fees and court revenues.

This income would be sufficient to operate a municipal government without a city tax, he added.

Another meeting is set for November 16. At that time Dermates is expected to make a recommendation, pending further study by his committee.

A person who moved from the development, he said, would be compensated for whatever equity he had built up, according to cooperative rules.

Each resident would receive a vote in cooperative affairs and the entire cooperative would be paid off through this equity system in about 40 years.

Clark added, "This will give the residents a stake in ownership. It will prevent the property from deteriorating as it does in the landlord-tenant relationship."

Busing Still Is an Issue

Whether to reinstate cancelled bussing service for safety and convenience of pupils and parents or to hang on to diminishing reserve funds for emergencies is the dilemma that still faces the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District Board of Education.

Discussion of the predicament reopened at the September 21 regular board meeting with presentation of a petition from parents in the Bay View School area of New Monterey about students who must walk to Walter Colton Junior High School, within the 2.5 mile limit on bussing for grades 7-8-9, but with the hazard of going through the wooded Deer Flats area or the longer approach through town. Either way, parents say, is particularly difficult in the rainy season.

Lt. Col. Cowan McFarlin, recently came to Fort Ord from Germany, reported his anxiety over safety of small children who walk to school on the post, with heavy traffic and no guards. It was explained that the Military Police assist, that in California it is illegal to spend school money for crossing guards and difficult to have volunteers approved by state authorities. Board member Samuel Brown said it may be possible to adjust bus service depending on times, routes and available space, but if there is any change in the policy it should apply to the entire district. He mentioned young children who must walk along or cross Broadway and Noche Buena Streets in Seaside.

In her remarks, Mrs. Arturo Valles said parents are afraid to confront the board with their problems. G. Germaine Davis III, board president, assured Mrs. Valles that anyone is welcome to come directly to the board if a problem is not satisfactorily solved at school or department level. He also said that both he and Robert L. Black, M.D., board member, have children who walk to school across a major highway and on a route without sidewalks. All board members are aware and concerned, he stated.

George Gividen repeated his previous opinion that bussing service should be reviewed especially for safety of young children. He said it is a question of priority. Gividen admits that money could come only from district reserve funds, which are dangerously low, unless the entire statement of conditions approved by the board with recommendation of the negotiating council were restudied, a formidable undertaking.

Raymond S. Isakson, with concurrence of other board members, asked the superintendent to have a detailed report soon, specifically about what adjustments may be made to increase service without any more costs and what estimated costs would be for the remainder of the school year.

Allan J. Petersdorf, superintendent, said the previous estimate for additional bus service was $16,000. The estimated $360,000 now in reserve is low for a $15-million budget and would run the district only about four days in emergency. He also said there is uncertainty of even that much in reserves pending completion of the current federal count of students. Should the district's total 3-a category of students whose parents or guardians both live and work on government property fall below 25 percent of the total enrollment, the district could lose some $200,000 in estimated income from Public Law 874 funds.

Davis said at the close of 45 minutes discussion that on the surface it seems reasonable to ask for reinstatement of bussing service cut off last spring with sudden loss of Public Law 874 grants, but the public must realize that school district income depends on "wield and mystical formulas" of monies from various governmental sources, as well as from local taxpayers who do not choose to increase rates. He encouraged parents to work through MPUSD PTA presidents' group, which meets with the superintendent October 2.

Del Ray Oaks City Hall To Expand

The city council of Del Ray Oaks has approved an $83,000 enlargement and extension of the City Hall.

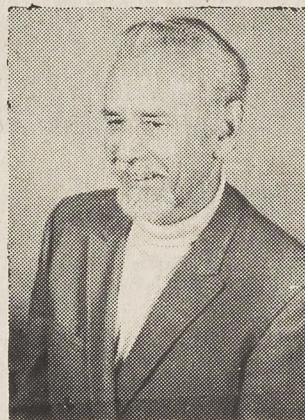

The council authorized the preparation of plans and the advertisement of bids to add some 1,500 square feet to the former fire station at Canyon Del Rey road and Carlton Drive.

The project will nearly double the size of the existing building and will triple the police department quarters.

A couple of weeks ago the County of Monterey received a low blow when they were notified by the Economic Development Agency that the County wasn't eligible for funds under the EDA program. This denial of funds hits the Seaside and Marina area doubly hard because this is where the large concentration of unemployed live. In some instances the unemployment in youth and minority in our area has reached the high of between 25 and 30% unemployed. Many of our young people leaving the army in this discharge area are faced with an economic crisis as to where to find a job. These EDA funds would have alleviated the situation enormously.

I talked to Congressman Burt Talcott last week concerning this and other matters. He informed the POST that the problem rests with unfavorable ruling on Monterey's eligibility for funds on a "technicality" and that the officials in Washington are "embarrassed" by the ruling inasmuch as they had been advising county officials that the county was eligible. Talcott told us that his office is in "active negotiation" with the department and that every effort is being made to reverse the ruling so that the county can have the much needed funds.

Congressman Talcott did receive a good bit of news which he imparted to us in regards to the serious unemployment problem in Monterey County. He showed us the following excerpt

MOD Awarded Project Contract

Mutual Ownership Development Foundation of San Francisco was given development rights to build apartment houses and town houses on an eight-acre parcel in Seaside's Del Monte Heights redemption project.

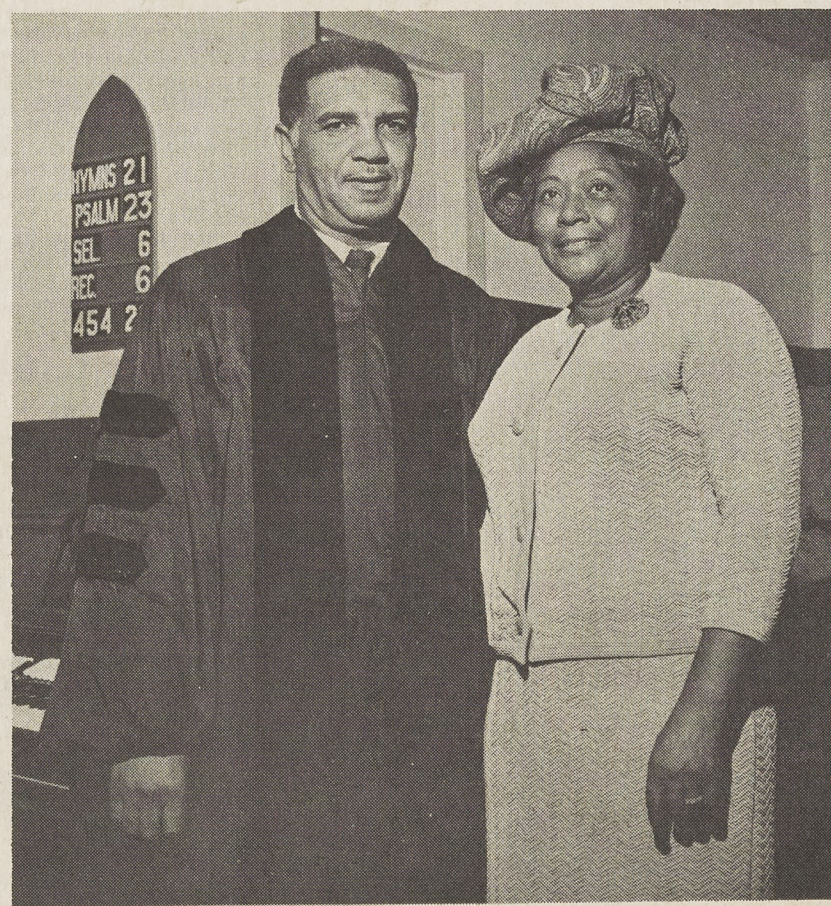

The multi-million dollar project, which was approved by the Seaside Redevelopment Agency, will be located in the eastern part of the city along the Fort Ord boundary between Sonoma and Wanda.

Frank Clark, who made the presentation for the MOD foundation, said work should get underway as soon as the foundation receives written approval from the FHA for its feasibility plan.

Clark said that the project calls for four major apartment divisions and townhouse development.

According to Clark, MOD's cooperative ownership program will make the community its own landlord. The program will allow each person obtaining residence in the development to make a down-payment on his rental unit and that monthly payments would gradually build equity in it.

MINIATURE CONFERENCE AND LUNCHEON

The members of the Junior League of the Monterey Peninsula hosted an interesting coffee, miniature conference and luncheon on Wednesday, September 16, in the Terrace Rooms, Mark Thomas Inn, Monterey. Approximately 230 women and a few men of the Peninsula, Salinas and San Jose attended.

Guest speaker was Dr. Eva Schindler-Rainman of Los Angeles. She is a dynamic speaker who has been described as a "five foot bundle of controlled energy," with degrees, training and experience as a behavioral scientist. She obtained her Masters and Doctorate in Social Work at the University of Southern California and is now on the faculty of the UCLA Education Extension. She is one of three women elected to the National Training Laboratories; a professional behavioral scientists' organization.

The title of Dr. Rainman's talk was "Translate Ideas and Ideals into Action." During the morning session, her impressive oral communication on such subjects as home situations, youth of today and women's roles, communication, paraprofessionals' needs and usefulness, sharing ideas with others and volunteer services was followed by workshop groups. Various trends were discussed at each table of eight to ten guests. Several of the groups' points of view were shared and summarized.

During the luncheon, Dr. Rainman continued to answer questions and offered good advice to be used by volunteer workers and leaders. Her training has emphasized development of better understanding between people. Her strategy is to bring together representatives of many groups in a city, both public and private, in order that people may look at concerns together. By steering the group toward specific commitment to action, such meetings she says, produce real results.

At the present time besides being on the UCLA faculty Dr. Rainman is a consultant on community organization for the Office of Economic Opportunity, the Women's Job Corps, the Los Angeles Youth Authority, to name only a few. She has served in Administrative and training capacities in several private and public agencies; her specialties include leadership training, community organization, teacher training and group work.

Dr. Rainman is the author of many articles and monographs and recently designed a series of three TV programs for the Los Angeles County Schools. This created a new format for human relations workshops using teachers and administrators in role-playing situations in unrehearsed TV scenes.

The Junior League hopes that this conference will be the first of many such experiences to be shared with the community -- experience that delve into and develop common interests and goals.

Among representatives from forty-one organizations and agencies were Camp Fire Girls, League of Women Voters, MPUSD, Salinas Volunteer Bureau, Anti-Poverty, Quota Club, Cancer and Heart Society, Seaside Human Relations, Red Cross, Bach Festival, Jaycettes and General Hospital.

Co-Chairman for the very exciting and worthwhile session were Mrs. Rolf Johnsen and Mr. E. Joe Hancock. President of local Junior League is Mrs. Bruce Matson.

COFFEE

Rep John Tunney, son of former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney and candidate opposing Senator George Murphy for the United States Senate, attended a coffee at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Smith of Seaside, on Sunday September 13.

Tunney, one of few senatorial candidates to visit Seaside, was accompanied by Elmer Cooper, Campaign Coordinator Among Minorities in Northern California and Carl Williams, Representative of San Francisco Redevelopment Program.

During the get acquainted coffee, Tunney stated he intended to put a black man on his staff with power to work with all people. He also discussed the Farm Labor situation and said his voting record by the NAACP was perfect.

Following an interesting discussion with approximately 20 peninsula residents, including Sam Brown, Gerald McGrath, Pat Patterson, James Taylor, Charlie Williams, James Rucker, Rev. C. Lewis McFadden and Pearl Carey, Tunney proceeded to MPC to attend the rally sponsored by the Democratic Women's Club of Monterey County, where 200 persons attended in the Patio Library.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR THEIR FRIENDS

SSG and Mrs. Charles Price of Fort Ord, entertained approximately 30 guests during a bar-b-que in their home on Saturday afternoon, August 29.

The Prices have been recently assigned to Panama. Prior to leaving they wanted to enjoy the company of their friends in their home.

Mrs. Price, formerly 1/Sgt Elizabeth T. Mills Price of the WAC Detachment at Fort Ord, retired two years ago, after more than 20 years of honorable service. Her husband was assigned to the United States Army Hospital, Fort Ord and the Defense Language Institute, West Coast.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

SSG Ezelle Pritchett of Fort Ord entertained a large group of friends during a cocktail-dinner birthday party in honor of his wife, Mildred.

The gala affair was enjoyed by their guests who danced, played cards and enjoyed the company of each other.

The Pritchetts have a daughter, Yvonne, a Senior at Seaside High School, who has been selected among eight other students to attend Stanford or UCB next fall.

PG&E $4,000 Scholarship Filings Due

High school seniors living or attending school in areas served by Pacific Gas and Electric Company who wish to compete for one of PG&E's $4,000 college scholarships were reminded by the company's scholarship committee to file application before the October 30 deadline.

Dr. David B. Stewart, director of educational activities of the company, said 16 scholarships will be awarded next April. High school counselors and PG&E offices have scholarship information and application forms.

Twelve of the scholarships are distributed among divisions of the company for award to students who reside or attend high school in the designated areas.

Two scholarships will be awarded for special recognition of students recommended by their schools for their recognition of students recommended by their schools for their achievements despite disadvantages. The remaining two scholarships are set aside for students whose parents are employees of PG&E.

On the basis of Scholastic Aptitude Tests (SAT) taken by senior students on November 7 or December 5, or previously in 1970, the 25 highest ranking applicants in the regional and company employee categories will be selected as quarter finalists. SAT applications are available from high school counselors.

Judging by a panel of civic leaders will narrow the field of candidates to 10 for each of the 14 regional or employee scholarships. From these students three will be selected to compete in the finals for each award.

Semifinalists and finalists in the special recognition scholarship program will be selected directly by the company's scholarship awards committee.

Final judging will take place in San Francisco in late April, Dr. Stewart said.

BIG WINNERS - Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan, owners of Duncan's Appliances, 693 Broadway in Seaside, are recent winners of a trip to Bahamas Islands in a contest sponsored by Kelvinator Appliances for sales personnel. Four employees of Duncan's also won same trip.

"WE GUARANTEE RESULTS!"

Scholarship Are Available Unreality Is Topic

Assemblyman Bob Wood announced the beginning of state competition for the California State Scholarships. Over 9,000 scholarships will be available in California for the 1971-72 academic year, beginning next September.

The Monterey County Assemblyman was a co-author of legislation to boost the number of State Scholarships from 6,000 to over 9,000.

The State Scholarship program is open to students attending both public and private colleges and universities. State Scholarships are grants of money awarded on the basis of academic achievement and promise to students having financial need. These grants may be used to offset the cost of tuition and student fees and vary in range from $140 to $2,000.

Students attending Monterey Peninsula College or Hartnell College may have their scholarships held in reserve until such time as they attend a four-year college.

The deadline for application is December 3, 1970. To be eligible, a student must be a resident of California and a high school graduate by the summer of the year of the award, or have been accepted for admission by an accredited college. The student must demonstrate a need for monetary assistance and the financial status of the parents of the student is the primary consideration in determining financial eligibility. Wood encouraged students in this district to apply for the program.

In this age of material affluence, no academically deserving student should be prevented from receiving an education because of financial hardship," Wood said.

Applications for State Scholarships may be obtained from Assemblyman Wood's District Office at 32 East Alisal Street in Salinas. The telephone number is 422-9085.

ARBUCKLE

Arbuckle in Colusa County is reported by National Automobile Club to be the center of a popular section for duck and goose hunting.

Spiritually enlightened goals are vital to the progress of individuals and nations.

This is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" to be presented at all Christian Science church services on the Monterey, Peninsula Sunday, Service begins at 11 a.m.

One of the Bible verses is from Proverbs: "Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven."

The supporting commentary from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include this insight: "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God."

Outer Limits Will Be Explored

"The Outer Limits," a series of four forum sessions designed for "exploring the physical and mental limits of man and his universe," will be offered at Monterey Peninsula College as a community service during October and early November.

The series will feature such diverse "explorers" as space scientist Albert R. Hibbs, science-fiction writer Ray Bradbury, mountain climber Luther Jerstad and "Moog" artist Douglas McKechnie in everything from an illustrated lecture to a concert - all by way of dramatizing the "outer limits" theme.

Dr. Hibbs, who has successfully spanned the gap between science and the public by devoting his scientific career to the missile and space programs and appearing as host on NBC's award-winning program, "Exploring," will open the series Friday, October 2, at 8 p.m. in MPC's Lecture Forum 103. His illustrated lecture, "Looking Into Space," will deal with the sun, the stars, the planets and the possibility of the existence of intelligent beings somewhere else in the universe.

Other scheduled sessions will include: Ray Bradbury, lecturing on "The Space Age as Creative Challenge," Friday, October 16, in the MPC music hall; Dr. Luther G. Jerstad, narrating the color motion picture, "Americans on Everest," and sharing his personal account of the first American ascent of the world's highest mountain from pages of his diary, Friday, October 30. MPC music hall and Douglas McKechnie, giving a lecture-demonstration and concert on the Moog Synthesizer, a modern music instrument, Friday, November 6, in the music hall.

Admission to the first three programs is $1.25; to the Moog concert, $1.50. Persons wishing to reserve seats for the entire series may do so by sending a check for $5.25 and stamped, self-addressed envelope to the MPC community services office, 980 Fremont, Monterey or visiting the office in the administration building on campus between 8:30 a.m. and noon. Tickets to individual sessions may also be purchased in this manner or at the door on the evening of a lecture.

Navy School Studying Bay

The Naval Postgraduate School Oceanography Department has received $17,000 from the Office of Naval Research to study the circulation of Monterey Bay.

The principal investigators, Professors Warren Denner and Edward Thornton, plan to study circulation in the bay and the mechanisms which cause currents. At present, both numerical simulation of the currents on digital computers and actual field investigations are being conducted.

The primary mechanisms which cause currents in the bay are the tides, winds, waves, density structure and offshore ocean currents. Using computer models in simulation studies, each mechanism can be studied separately to pinpoint its effect on the total circulation even though all the mechanisms work simultaneously to create complex current patterns.

One model is now in use and another under development. Sheldon Laganoff of the Naval Oceanographic Office is attached to Fleet Numerical Weather Central and is using a model incorporating winds and tides. He is also participating in field studies to assess and verify the numerical models.

Lt. Jg. Roland Garcia, a student in the Department of Oceanography, is developing a numerical model in which ocean currents outside the bay drive currents within the bay. After the driving mechanisms are studied separately, they will be combined to obtain a more complete picture of circulation in Monterey Bay.

A two week oceanographic cruise was conducted aboard a Navy Oceanographic research ship last month and one of the objectives was to provide information concerning circulation in the bay. The most modern oceanographic techniques were used and the data collected is now being analyzed. Other cruises are planned for November, January and April.

The participants are aware of the local problems associated with pollution in Monterey Bay. The studies are being conducted with these problems in mind and hopefully they will lead to important information which will help alleviate the pollution hazard.

Wood Opposes Boycott

Assemblyman Bob Wood has announced that he is in total opposition to the lettuce boycott begun by Cesar Chavez's United Farm Workers Organizing Committee.

Wood said he feels that "boycotts of any nature are vicious, destructive and unfair to the consumer and can only cripple the economy by providing a weapon that can be used against the wishes of the people."

"Corrective legislation of our farm labor problem is essential for the well-being of all Californians, particularly the consumer, which in reality, is every man, woman and child in our great State," Assemblyman Wood concluded.

Clinic For Alcoholics Is Opened

Dr. R.S. Fraser, Director of Public Health, Monterey County, has announced the opening of the Monterey County Alcoholism Clinic in Salinas. The clinic is located at 984 Lupin Drive in the Sherwood Shopping Center. This is the second alcoholism clinic established in the county; the first has been in operation in Monterey for about 4 years.

The Salinas Alcoholism Clinic is devoted entirely to the treatment and assistance of patients suffering from alcoholism. Dr. Fraser pointed out that alcoholism is a multi-faceted ailment and that the Clinic offers the patient a wide variety of services designed to assist him in overcoming his inclination toward excessive drinking. Initially, a thorough analysis and evaluation of the patient's occupational, social and psychological needs will be made and a treatment plan will be designed. The treatment plan may include vocational counseling and training, group therapy, orientation lectures, marital counseling and personal counseling.

After the treatment plan has been designed and agreed upon by the patient, the counselor and the physician concerned, the patient will be seen regularly at the clinic for continuing treatment.

from a letter received from Malcolm Lovell, Assistant Secretary Designate for Manpower, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C.

"We have also recently classified the county as an area of substantial unemployment on the basis of montly unemployment rates in the latter part of 1969 and the earlier months of 1970. As a result of this classification, firms in Monterey County are eligible under the provisions of revised manpower policy #4 for first preference in the award of federal procurement contracts if they agree to hire a proportionate number of disadvantaged residents of the county. I hope this action will contribute to an early alleviation of the unemployment problems in the county."

Talcott pointed out that this was in no way a sop to cover the fact that the EDA hadn't come through but that this would be a real help in obtaining contracts for local contractors on a preferential basis.

We have had so many politicians in the area these last few days that it has been just impossible to cover all of the events. We are instituting a political roundup column so that we can cover all of the candidates without favor. Most of the news releases that we receive from the candidates are just too long to go into our limited news columns. I will mention one candidate that is going to be in Seaside this week. That is Wilson Riles, candidate for State Superintendent of Instruction. Riles will be available on Thursday, October 1, at Carey's Child Care Center, 1786 Noche Buena, Seaside, between the hours of 10 and 11 a.m. to talk to local voters about the issues and to meet as many of the Seaside residents as he can. The meeting is open to the public and everybody who can ought to drop by and meet Wilson Riles.

I very innocently got myself in trouble with the Chamber of Commerce last week over my article on "Real Estate." It seems that the chamber has had a committee studying the location of the post office for some weeks and had come up with a recommendation to locate around Echo Avenue. My article didn't oppose that view; as a matter of fact we didn't take a position as to where the post office should be located. We did take a position, and we told the chamber members who told us about our article, that we did oppose the idea of not informing the entire membership of the council of the plans to go to San Francisco to try to dissuade Schultz of the Post Office Real Estate division on their site location on Broadway. We have a new regime in the council and we should learn to work with the majority instead of trying to work under the old rules. All that happens is that the majority of council gets its back up and sometimes acts hastily because they have been by-passed. I don't blame them. Too long have we had a one-man rule here in Seaside; it is about time we all learn to work with the majority and move Seaside ahead. I suggest to all parties involved that a public hearing be set real soon so that everyone interested in the location of the post office can be heard before a final decision is made.

Who Cares

by Mel Vercos

On Saturday, Sept. 26, 1970, the final death notices of the Democratic Party (of the United States) were given to the press in Paris, France, by President Nixon's great political, economic and military adviser, Dr. Henry Kissinger.

In a last-ditch attempt to forestall South Vietnamese Vice President Ky's visit to America, which would have been a great embarrassment to our ruling military-industrial junta, Dr. Kissinger was sent to Paris on the pretense of talking part in the peace talks, but specifically to get the "word" to Ky that his appearance and possibly truthfully blunt statements might spill the beans and weaken our already questionable Pentagon-people credibility relationship. Dr. Kissinger succeeded and a dangerous gap was closed. But more than that, his action demonstrated that this ruling junta of which I speak can not only stifle dissent within our nation, it can employ effective methods in stifling unwanted news from abroad - in this case the disgust provoking appearance of Mr. Ky in his pseudo-gestapo uniform.

The slow death of the Democratic Party began with our blunder in Korea, when it began to be important in a big way that one political party could do more for big American business than the other party. Elections are won by well-financed campaigns, not by capable, but poor candidates and it soon became apparent that not very many wealthy, capable candidates were going to risk their shirts going to bat for people who could not even contribute money to their cause.

Our well-deserved inflation magnified the problem, until now we have, for all practical purposes, a one party system, not much different from that enjoyed by Russia, China and some other countries. It is significant that proposals to give candidates equal TV exposure, regardless of ability to pay, are quickly shot down by the "ins", least a wedge by driven into a beautiful monopoly of power.

NEW SHOW

Dennis Weaver has a right nice TV show going. A couple of nights ago, as a western marshal on temporary training duty with the New York Police Department, he recovered a stolen horse - a police horse - and arrested the naked girl who was sitting on it. The camera angle was rather bad, so we couldn't tell if she was or was not wearing a gun belt and six gun.

Dennis used to be Marshal Dillon's able assistant. "Mr. Dillon, you'd better come quick. His head's been shot plumb off, and his neck's bleedin' somethin' fierce." Someday I hope they will film may idea of a good western - a bunch of Chinese cowboys with Swedish accents circling a wagon train full of Indians who are talking Italian.

partment will gain two holding cells and a booking area. An office to be constructed near the rear of the existing building will be used as the city clerk's office and other offices other than the police quarters. The schedule adopted by the city council calls for opening of bids October 27, awarding of the contract October 29, starting of construction November 2 and completion by May 3.

The project will be financed out of existing funds accumulated for this specific purpose.

Senior Housing Opens

The Villa Del Monte Senior Housing project at Broadway and Ancon in Seaside opened its doors for the first time last week. First tenant in the project was Mrs. Florence M. Green.

Mrs. Green, who is 83-years-old, was born in London in 1887. She served in the First World War as a nurse in the British Army. Decorated by King George with the Order of the British Empire (O.B.E.), she was only one of 13 who received this honor in the military division.

Mrs. Green came to the United States in 1912 and settled in Rhode Island. She has lived in Monterey and Seaside since 1962. In December, 1969, at the age of 82, she retired from the nursing profession.

The housing project for seniors is a long-time dream of the Seaside Civic League. It was sponsored by nine of Seaside's civic clubs. Included in the group are: Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Chamber of Commerce, Quota Club, Seaside Senior Citizens, Church of God in Christ, Ocean View Baptist Church and the original Seaside Civic League, Inc.

The units, which are modern and carpeted, rent for $82, $88 and $92.

Of the 80 units, 16 are reserved for the Housing Authority. These will be rented with rent subsidies, which will reduce the rent to as low as $45.

Present director of the project is Bud Houser. Houser will be succeeded by Charles Williams, who will be the permanent manager of the project.

Laguna Seca Collection Continues

Tickets Go On Sale

Laguna Seca Raceway officials have announced that they are receiving entries for what is expected to be one of the most exciting racing events held in its long prestigious history.

The Monterey-Castrol Grand Prix, October 16-18, brings to California the 1970 Canadian-American Challenge Cup Series for Group 7 unlimited engine sports cars. There machines are capable of speeds in excess of 200 mph and will be traveling 80 laps over the 1.9 mile Laguna Seca circuit.

Many top drivers will be competing for the $76,500 purse. Among them, Denis Hulme, the current points leader in a McLaren M8D. Also starting in the 32 car field will be the new BRM 154, piloted by Canadian George Eaton, Peter Revson's L&M Lola T-220 and Jim Hall's revolutionary "vacuum cleaner" Chaparral 2J. These teams are always strong threats for the winner's laurels.

Can-Am qualifying starts on Friday, October 16 and continues on Saturday. The Monterey-Castrol Grand Prix will start at 1:15 p.m. on Sunday. There will also be six regional championship races during the weekend for production, formula, sedan, and sports racing cars.

Discount tickets are now on sale. The Sunday general admission ticket purchased at the gate will be $8; however, if purchased now, it is only $6.50. Three-day general admission is now $9, but will be $10 at the gate. Tickets are available in Monterey at Abrego Union Service, Fremont and Abrego; British Motors, 777 Del Monte; Chamber of Commerce, Franklin and El Estero; Macy's, Del Monte Shopping Center; SCRAM Office, USO Building and Wester Porsche Audi, 1187 Del Monte.

In Salinas, tickets may be purchased at Camera Exchange, 929 S. Main; Car Probe, 1065 N. Main; Honda of Salinas, 125 Monterey; Hyatt House, 808 N. Main and Peninsula Tires, 505 Abbott.

Wester Volkswagen, 4 Geary Plaza in Seaside, has tickets.

Heart Attack More Deadly For Young

Younger men -- those under 30 who develop coronary heart disease -- are more likely to be severely hit and to die within 24 hours of a first attack than older persons.

This research finding is one of a number of important facts in a newly available newsletter "Heart In Industry" which can be had free from the Central Mission Trails Heart Association. Write to the Association at 541-A South Main Street, Salinas 93901 for your copy.

The bad news for younger men quoted above is based on a 15-year follow-up study by the National Academy of Science.

An unusually high early-fatality rate was found among men aged 20-29 diagnosed to have the more severe forms of coronary heart disease. Young men who survived acute attack did have more years of survival than older men. However, their mortality ratio still remained higher than that of the general population of the same age.

Hospital Needs Nurses

General Hospital of Monterey County has a real need for qualified Staff Nurses and Licensed Vocational Nurses. Staff Nurse at a salary range of $723-$806 requires registration as a nurse in California and offers applicants the opportunity to perform all phases of nursing care including supervision of subprofessional personnel. In addition, a wide latitude of working assignments, including days and hours of work and part time work, may be available.

Licensed Vocational Nurse at a salary range of $458-$568 requires possession of a valid license as a Vocational Nurse in California and offers a variety of interesting working involving responsible patient care and treatment.

Further information and applications are available from the Monterey County Personnel Office, P.O. Box 180, Salinas, California 93901; phone 424-8611, extension 284.

The VA says a recent law, PL 91-241, limits the amount the agency may withhold from veterans' disability compensation checks to recoup military disability severance pay.

A reminder that the aluminum recycling campaign is still going on was issued recently by the youth group of Ventana Chapter, Sierra Club.

Two centrally located collection bins are open daily, one on the MPC campus, the other at Carmel High School. Eight hundred pounds of aluminum, which comes to 18, 400 beer and pop cans, were collected by the youth group in its semi-annual roundup September 12.

"That was great, but we hope conservationists will keep right on saving aluminum cans, TV dinner trays and foil," said Jack Holmgren, Carmel High School, campaign coordinator.

The latest pickup, climaxing a campaign spread over several months, was centered at four Monterey Peninsula high schools and involved 21 young Sierra Club members. The teen-agers added $80 to a fund which will be used to make a 16mm film on coastal conservation.

Wire collection bins are located on the MPC campus, near the parking lot across from the old Student Union, and in the island on the Carmel High parking lot.

"There bins are for people who don't want the cans to pile up in their closets, grages or carports," a spokesman for the youth group said.

BACK PROBLEM

About 80 percent of the drivers on the nation's road, reports the National Automobile Club, have some kind of back problem while driving.

Senior Citizens To File Property Tax Claims

October 15 is the deadline for Senior Citizens to file claims for a refund on their 1969-70 property taxes, Martin Huff, Executive Officer of the Franchise Tax Board, said recently. The state program refunds a portion of the property taxes paid by persons 65 years of age or older who have low incomes. The money received under this program never has to be repaid and no liens are filed on the claimant's property, he said. To be eligible for Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, claimants must be over 65 years of age as of January 1, 1970; must own and occupy their own home; must have paid the property taxes on the home and must have a total household income of less than $3,350. Qualified individuals can obtain claim forms from any office of the Franchise Tax Board or by writing to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P. O. Box 1588, Sacramento, California 95807.

Enrollment Scholarship Program Increases Continues

A "first" enrollment figure of 3,256 day students, as cited by Monterey Peninsula College Dean of Students Jack Bessire in a report given to the MPC board of trustees at their September 16 meeting, shows an increase of 5.8 percent over the fall, 1969, total of 3,076.

Dr. Bessire said that the fall, 1970, student body is composed of 1,849 males, or 56 percent, and 1,407 females. Of these, 1,228 are new students; 1,367, continuing; 246, students returning after absence; 41, returning transfer students and 374, first-time transfer students.

The enrollment of evening students currently stands at 2,230 but this figure may change after "late registration" closes September 23. In other business, the trustees heard a report from John California-American Water Company is again sponsoring a college scholarship program under which children of employees and of customers served directly by the water company are eligible to compete.

David H. Fiscus, manager said that copies of a brochure describing the program and Rivers, the college's new director of special services, on his plans for the Educational Opportunity Program and other service gave approval to a budget for $79,042 in funds received from Senate Bill 164 (the Alquist bill); and accepted a gift of an Indian pot recovered from a burial ground in New Mexico and donated to the College by W.F. including an application blank have been distributed to senior high schools in the company's service area. Information may also be obtained at the water company office.

The American Water Works Foundation scholarship program is financed by California-American Water Company and other companies which comprise the American Water Works Company System, largest in the nation.

The program has been in effect since 1961.

This year the Foundation awarded 50 scholarships - 23 to children of System employees and 27 to children of customers served directly by System companies. Among this year's winners were Dennis R. Fitzsimmons of Seaside and Rita E. Costner of Monterey.

The awards are based on the contestants' performance in the College Entrance Examination Board test. Judging is done by a committee of educators selected by Educational Testing Service, which supervises the scholarship program.

LUNCH TIME - Recent statistics show that close to half of Seaside High's graduates transfer to Monterey Peninsula College every year. Some Seaside graduates are undoubtedly part of group watching noon rock concert in new Student Forum, which is between gym and theater and College Center.

Grooving Around The Peninsula with Betty Mann

Hi There Fellow Peninsulans:

Happenings last weekend were: The Monterey Jazz Festival which was a somewhat (should I say half) swinger. Even though the Jazz Festival directors went back strictly to the old Jazz policy, the crowd was larger than ever this year. It seemed like the good time people, who really make the festival interesting were missing. I've often wondered why the Jazz Festivals in Concord, Calif. and U.C. Berkeley always manage to have the top Jazz musicians at their gigs that by no means are as popular or as famous as the Monterey Jazz Festival. They usually get the big names in Jazz such as Miles Davis, Cannonball Adderly, Thelonious Monk, etc. I will share a few interesting sightings, and soundbites, that I dug at this year's gig. Friday night was high class nite. The M.J.F. playing their smooth, slightly heavy, music, along with the Alan Copeland Singers kinds off beat, and the Tim Weisberg Quintet trying to do their thing. And finally found out who Slim and Slam were! Slam recorded and made the hit record of the 30's, Flat Foot Floogie, which was made famous at the World's Fair in 1939, which was sealed in a time capsule at that world's fair. No wonder I didn't dig him! I was only 4 years old right about then. (smile) Anyway I dig Slim and Slam. Slam made his voice and bass fiddle both talk to the audience simultaneously. Saturday afternoon was "soul" time. Every soul who had some soul from yesteryear, appeared on the set; all the famous Kansas City type blues shouters did their thing. Clean head Vinson socked it to the crowd; Ivory Joe ("Since I Lost My Baby") Hunter, Roy Milton, smooth and mellow; Delmar (mighty mouth and mighty butt) Clark; Mr. T Bone Walker didn't show. Johnny Otis exploited talented son, Shuggie Otis Jimmy (everyday I have the blues) Rushing, Roy Brown shaking the crowd up with "Whole lot of rocking tonight, Esther Phillips (baby) soothing and making love to the crowd, (I'm in the mood for love) wow! Big Joe Turner turned the crowd on with his (trying to sell pencils on the street corner somewhere). Well, at this afternoon set, the good times crowd, which is always a Sat. afternoon custom, did their usual thing and let it all hang out on top of chairs in the arena, in the aisles and everywhere. Back to Friday nite: Duke Ellington, was smooth and mellow as ever, when he finally managed to get his band boys out of the Hunts Club, cocktail lounge. (smile) They kept calling over the loud speaker (members of the Duke Ellington Band please, please, you are needed on the stage immediately!) so whatever set they did you can see why. (smiles) Meanwhile I was in the Hunts Club for R & R myself. (smiles). Back to Sat. nite which to me was kind of a drag at the festival, but Jane Van Hook's & hubby Walter Brown's after hours cocktail party that was held at their fabulous beachfront home on Del Monte Beach made those of us who were invited, forget the boring Sat. Nite Jazz performance. Singer Joe Williams comin' on strong with his smooth articulate voice, being backed by Woody Herman's Band with John Handy, sitting in as guest on alto sax; Cannonball and Nat Adderly during their usual good thing, and giving Nat's son his first Monterey Jazz Festival debut. Nat Jr. is 15 yrs. old. Another surprise on this night was old time great Jimmy Witherspoon. The oldsters I'm sure dug Woody Herman and band who ended the Sat. nite's dull set. On Sunday afternoon M.J.F., playing it smooth and mellow, with the very talented Oakland Youth Chamber Orch. who played a beautiful set that was a combination of chamber music accompanied by Jazz. Prince Lasha's Firebirds were alright too. Sunday nite was the very big big show with Sonny Stitt and Gene Ammons really wowing the big crowd with their Saxophone duets. Baby, I mean they made them Sax's talk to the people. They may not have appeared together for over a decade, but they are strictly professional and accomplished musicians. They were accompanied by the Hampton Hawes group, the surprise and treat of this show which wouldn't have been complete without his grace Dizzy Gillespie who appeared with his trumpet clowning and demonstrating hilarious antics. He blew a few numbers and clowning a lot; Duke Ellington who was M.C. came on the stage before Dizzy was finished and Dizzy seemed to get his feathers slightly ruffled, so he decided to do another number and Duke went back stage graciously. When Dizzy finished this number he layed his trumpet down and then beckoned for Duke to come back. He had finished his number and this was really hilarious to the crowd. Coming on a bit late after Dizzy's set was The Buddy Rich Band who worked out fast, good, and together.

Jane Van Hook was the busiest hostess the weekend of the Jazz Festival. On Friday evening from 4 to 7 p.m. Jane had a reception at the Legal Aid Society Office, in honor of her new group of lawyers that have joined her staff. Visitors and guests were introduced to the charming young lawyers and their respective families and then were taken on a tour of the building, that consists of a library, spacious individual offices for each lawyer and, for the office staff, a conference room and a very relaxing-looking lounge. On Sat. Nite Jane had a cocktail party. (it is in the Jazz Column). Many important people from the Bay Area were down to visit Jane. Among them were lawyers, doctors, State Dept. Employees, teachers, etc, all friends and co-workers of Jane and Walter when they lived in Berkeley. Many Monterey Peninsulans were in attendance to help Jane entertain this charming group of people.
